

Disaster Preparation

BOOKS & PRODUCTS

Maggie Watson created A Graceful Farewell; a workbook & CD to help people put their affairs in order. Legal, medical, financial and other important information is all in one location.

If Something Happens to Me by Joseph R. Hearn & Niel D. Nielson is exactly what the subtitle claims: A Workbook to Help Organize Your Financial and Legal Affairs. If you want a step-by-step tool so you are ready for the unexpected, this is a great resource.

Life@Hand is a “grab-and-go” product.

Life in Case is a “grab-and-go” product.

Judith Kolberg’s Organize for Disaster: Prepare Your Family and Home for Any Natural or Unnatural Disaster is a handbook to get you prepared without overwhelming you. Topics such as organizing documents, protecting house contents, evacuation and communication procedures are divided into manageable sections.

The Vital Records PortaVault is a “grab-and-go” product that organizes important home records and documents so you can quickly take this information with you in one handy container in the event of an emergency.
